2. 1998 Justin Isosceles

Cellar Tracker 92

No longer available in retail.

Very concentrated and deep for a 1998, the Justin Isosceles is blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 19% Cabernet Franc and 16% Merlot. The wine is elegant in the mouth, with layers of dark, spicy fruits, toasted oak and soft, silky tannins. It will be drinking excellent over the next 5 to 7 years. A sure cellar star...or hang it on the wall with the moosehead.

A deep garnet color with purple hues. After swirling the glass, vanilla, raspberry and cassis aromas complement initial impressions of cedar, blueberry, toasted oak and spices. The wine has a soft and full entry. The acidity that follows the entry balances the wines compact tannic structure and higher alcohol level. As the wine develops, the fruit and oak become more pronounced, creating a long and predominantly raspberry and toasted oak finish.

Medium-weight with good concentration and purity. Perfect for an elegant dinner. A powerful, big volume of wine - very rich tannins and full fruit. Complex.

6. 2002 Louis Roederer Cristal Champagne

98 points Wine Enthusiast
This is an exceptional wine, as is the vintage. The fruits - grapefruit, crisp red apple - balance with a fine yeasty character. There is a great depth of flavor, the fruits going in a pure line of freshness. The one problem is that it is much too young, the result of the demand from the market for the next vintage. Age this wine for at least four years.

100 points Wine & Spirits
If a wine could ever make you want to pull the top down on your '68 Ferrari convertible, rip off the rearview mirror and take off, this is it. It has a different kind of energy than the '02 Cristal Rosé, which is more ethereal, like strawberries at the right hand of some ancient Gallic god. This is more insolent, brash, earth bound. All the scents and flavors seem to emanate from limestone, as does the acidity, which hits at the front of the mouth and powers through the wine with the kind of solar energy that lifts mist off the white chalk on a cool morning in Cramant. The wine goes on for miles. It's already irresistible, and will only improve with ten, 20, 30 and 40 years of age.

7. 2002 Pahlmeyer Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend

99RP, 95WS, 94ST
SOLD OUT RETAIL

99 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate
The nearly perfect 2002 Proprietary Red Wine is a blend of 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 22% Merlot and the rest dollops of Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot and Malbec. This exotic, full-throttle, nearly over-the-top red wine’s intensity, richness and smoky coffee notes intermixed with notions of chocolate, graphite, and jammy blackberry and black currant fruit ooze from the glass. This rich, concentrated beauty tastes more like a top-notch, young Right Bank Bordeaux from a vintage such as 2009 than a wine dominated by Cabernet Sauvignon. With stunning purity and awesome potential, it can be drunk now or cellared for another two decades. (RP) (6/ 2012)

95 points Wine Spectator
Displaying extraordinary aromatics, this shows a wealth of flavor, finesse, richness and grace. Pure, sleek cherry, berry and pomegranate notes are woven together with enticing floral scents. Keeps gaining depth and dimension without weight. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot and Malbec.—2002 California Cabernet blind retrospective (May 2012). Drink now through 2022. (Web-2012)

94 points Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
Full medium ruby. Brooding, medicinal aromas of black fruits. Sweet, chewy and deep, with flavors of dark berries, violet, minerals and game freshened by harmonious acidity. Finishes long and ripe, with fine, sweet, building tannins. Green notes that the merlot in this blend is actually tighter and less fleshy than the Cabernet. (6/ 2005)

8. 2004 Dom Perignon Brut

95 points Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate

Lily-of-the-valley perfume and scents of lightly toasted brioche and almond rise from the glass of 2004 Dom Perignon Brut, along with hints of the apricot, pear and grapefruit that then inform a luscious and creamy yet strikingly delicate as well as consummately refreshing palate. Sweet-saline savor of scallop – also already intimated in the nose – lends compulsive saliva-inducement to a ravishingly rarified and persistent finish, joined by alkaline, nutty, liquid-floral, and nori seaweed notes for a performance of head-scratching subtlety and intrigue. This will be worth following for at least the next 6-8 years, in the course of demonstrating that iconic status as a luxury brand, and elevated (albeit secret) production numbers by no means preclude a wine of understated as well as profound beauty.

9. 2005 Chateau Montelena Estate Cabernet Sauvignon

93ST, 92RP, 90WE

Wait listed for availability.

93 points Stephen Tanzer’s International Wine Cellar

Good deep ruby-red. Complex aromas of currant, licorice, graphite, bitter chocolate, smoked meat, tobacco and brown spices. Began juicy, penetrating and quite youthfully uninvolved, but aeration brought a suppler, rounder texture and more generosity to this impressively structured wine. Complicating notes of bitter cherry, menthol and minerals. This will require a good eight to ten years of aging but the substantial tannins are sweet and lush. Very long, pure and powerful on the finish. (6/ 2008)

91 points Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate

The flagship wine, the 2005 Chateau Montelena Cabernet Sauvignon Estate displays a lovely perfume of fresh herbs, loamy soil, black cherries, and black currants. Spicy and very Bordeaux-like in this vintage, with high tannins, a cool climate freshness, and a leaner personality than is found in riper vintages, it will benefit from 1-2 years of cellaring, and should drink well for two decades or more. (12/ 2008)

90 points Wine Enthusiast

Quite rich and exotic, with complex, appealing flavors of cocoa puff, mocha, buttered cinnamon toast, blackberry granola and smoky cedar. The richness finishes drily, but they wine is very tannic, giving it a lock-down astringency. Needs time. (3/ 2010)

10. 2005 Peter Michael "Ma Belle-Fille" Knights Valley Chardonnay

94RP, 93ST, 91WS

No longer available in retail.

94 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "...orange blossoms, hazelnuts, brioche, smoke, and honeysuckle along with some peach notes are present in the full-bodied, beautifully well-delineated, pure, zesty 2005 Chardonnay Ma Belle-Fille. There are only 1,600 cases of this wine, which has superb uplift and vibrancy." (12/2007)

93 points Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar: "Hazy gold. Rich, smoky scents of baked apple, yellow plum and melon, plus a strong iodine accent. Restrained citrus and orchard fruit flavors are complicated by smoked meat and mineral accents, with a hint of tropical fruits on the strikingly persistent finish. A bright mineral snap and jolt of licorice adds eye-opening focus." (05/2007)

91 points Wine Spectator: "Pure, rich and focused, showing a mix of ripe pear, apple and mineral flavors, with floral, fruity aromas that give this a distinctive quality. Turns delicate, flinty and refreshing on the finish." (06/2007)

11. 2005 Shafer "Relentless" Napa Valley Syrah

This vintage is sold out.

93 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate
The sensational 2005 Relentless boasts an opaque purple color along with a wonderfully sweet nose of blackberries, creosote, acacia flowers, and hints of pepper and meat in the background. Full-bodied and densely concentrated with the oak component well-concealed by the wine’s extravagant richness, this gorgeous 2005 can be drunk now or cellared for 10 years. (12/ 2008)

92 points Wine Spectator
Brimming with spicy, zesty wild berry, pepper, mineral and fresh earth flavors presented in a tight, focused, concentrated manner. Finishes with firm tannins and good length. Syrah and Petite Sirah. (12/ 2008)

90 points Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

12. 2007 Cayuse Bionic Frog Syrah, Walla Walla
95WS, 95RP, 95ST

No longer available in retail.

95 points Wine Spectator

This has tremendous presence, graceful but forceful, playing out its flavors of plum, currant, black pepper and licorice against a background that hints at warm granite, cinnamon bark and bay leaf. Complex and harmonious.  (6/ 2010)

95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The Cayuse 2007 Syrah Bionic Frog emphasizes sappy, bittersweet, dark berry and herbal concentrates on a palate whose plushness, viscosity, and fine grain of tannin resemble those of Cailloux from the same vintage tasted alongside. Brown spices, peat-like smokiness, and medicinal elements that straddle the borders of mineral, herbal and fruit character all lead to a superbly long, soothing finish that contrasts with the burst of enervating finishing energy in the corresponding Cailloux. (12/ 2012)

95 points Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

Knockout nose and palate combine blackberry, smoke, black olive, garrigue, spices and pepper. Dense, round and opulent in the mouth, with a spectacularly silky texture to the middle palate. Finishes with sophisticated dusty tannins and outstanding palate-saturating length. This wine's superb slow-mounting whiplash of perfume is something to experience.  (12/ 2010)

13. 2008 Clos Pegase, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley
92WE, 91CG

92 points Wine Enthusiast

This wine is another rewarding Cabernet from a winery with a great track record over the years. Blended with some Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot, it's dry and ultrasmooth, and while the tannins are thick, they're sweet and ripe. The blackberry, cherry, blueberry and cassis flavors have a rich, fleshy opulence. Drink now–2015.  (4/ 2012)

91 points Connoisseurs Guide

Two stars Bright, fragrant and built around a mix of curranty and slightly berryish fruit with nicely fit nuances of spice and creamy oak, this wine is both fully ripened yet light on its feet. In the mouth, its keen focus on varietal fruit is again augmented by a light berryish note and by rich oakiness in flavors that are continuous, accessible and just tight enough at this writing to suggest further expansion with some four to six years of patient cellaring. 19  2009 Starmont Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate
A pretty, entry-level offering, the 2009 Cabernet Sauvignon Starmont is laced with sweet red berries, flowers, spices and licorice. This mid-weight Cabernet puts a premium on juiciness and approachability. It is a delicious wine to drink now and over the next few years. Even better, it is a terrific value. 22. 2010 Joseph Phelps "Freestone Vineyards" Sonoma Coast Chardonnay
94RP, 94WE, 93CG, 92WS, 90ST

94 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate
A bit more layered than the Pastorale, the 2010 Chardonnay Estate Freestone Vineyard caresses the palate from beginning to end. Lemon, pastry, white flowers, crushed rocks and a whisper of French oak all emerge from the glass in the seamless, totally polished Chardonnay. The aromas and flavors remain bright, focused and beautifully articulated from start to finish. This is another fabulous wine from Joseph Phelps. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2018. (4/ 2013)

94 points Wine Enthusiast
Bone dry, minerally and brisk in mouthwatering acidity, this has subtle yet rich flavors of tropical fruit, citrus, green apple and honey. It shows real elegance and complexity; drink now–2016. (10/ 2012)

93 points Connoisseurs Guide
Two stars Those who doubt that California Chardonnay can rival those from Burgundy when it comes to structure and balance are bound rethink their views when tasting this vibrant, deeply filled bottling. Tight but so very deep and keenly focused on minerals, wonderfully fresh, green-apple fruit and lovely oak spice, the wine is as long on finesse as it is on richness, and it is far from reaching its best. It is, in fact, too young to drink any time soon, and great dividends lie ahead for those who exercise a few years of patience. (8/ 2012)

92 points Wine Spectator
Pure, clean and focused on snappy green apple, floral, honeysuckle and mineral flavors. The sheer vibrancy gives this a unique personality, ending with a long, mineral-laced finish. Drink now through 2020. (7/ 2012)

Bright green-yellow. Vibrant aromas of lime, orange oil and flowers, plus a whiff of brioche. Tactile, juicy and crisp, with strong fruit-driven flavors of green tropical fruits, lemon and pineapple. Very good density and freshness here, but in a cooler style than the 2009 bottling. (5/ 2012)

27. 2011 Kosta Browne Pinot Noir, Santa Lucia Highlands (Magnum)
91IWC, 90WS

Winemaker notes
This wine displays deep notes of orange peel, cherries, and five-spice and is supported by hints of ginger, strawberry and rhubarb. The Santa Lucia Highlands Pinot Noir is a luscious mouth-filling wine. It is deeply structured with supple tannins centered in the mid-palate. A sweet and sour mix of red and black fruits; penetrating red cherry and blackberry dominate, ending in a clean strawberry and dark cherry finish.

91 Points International Wine Cellar
"Full ruby. A powerfully scented bouquet displays smoky black raspberry, cherry, licorice and oak spices. Pliant dark berry flavors gain energy with air, taking a turn to zestier raspberry and bitter cherry. Impressively deep but focused and energetic pinot, with excellent finishing lift and lingering spiciness."

90 points Wine Spectator

Deep garnet-black colored, the 2011 Enchanted Path is a blend of 71% Shiraz and 29% Cabernet Sauvignon fruit all coming from McLaren Vale. It reveals an enticing toasty and nutty character fused with very fragrant floral notes of lilacs accented with chocolate and licorice. Ripe and rich in the mouth, it has a nice structure, medium levels of grainy tannins, concentrated fruit and a long finish with some coffee hints. It is a very good wine that will drink from 2014 to 2022+. (2/ 2013)

Oddly, the most consistent Krug wine I have been tasting lately is their non-vintage Brut Grand Cuvee, a big, boldly styled Champagne with smoky, earthy, pear, apple, and spicy aromas as well as flavors, loads of effervescence, and fine body and depth.

NO WARRANTIES ON WINES

Wines are sold as is.

We don't replace wines or issue refunds for wine that buyers believe is undrinkable.

Buyers should inspect for label condition, bottle fill level, cork condition, and capsule condition.

The wine industry estimates that between three (3) and seven (7) percent of all wines sealed with natural corks are ruined because of a natural fungus in corkwood that produces the chemical compound trichloroanisole ("TCA") within the cork. TCA has a distinctive odor resembling moldy newspaper or a damp basement. In almost all cases of “corked” wine, the aroma of the wine is reduced significantly, and a heavily tainted wine is completely undrinkable.

This package includes:

2010 Turnbull Cabernet Sauvignon, Estate Grown, Napa Valley
Powerful yet graceful, dusted summer blackberries and crème de cassis. Delicate fine-tuned French oak strikes a perfect balance, creating the counter-point to the astounding density of dark and lifted red fruit. The tannins are silky, rich and smooth, detailing the amazing singularity of the terrior of Oakville.

2008 Napa Angel by Montes, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley
91 Points Wine Spectator: “Exhibits a juicy core of flavors, with blackberry, wild berry and raspberry fruit, showing a touch of bramble and stem, ending with a long, juicy finish. Drink now through 2022.”

2011 Robert Craig Affinity, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley
This wine is not yet rated but the 2010 received scores of WS90, ST93, RP92, WE92. The fruit is picked and sorted by hand, then kept in separate lots during fermentation and barrel aging. The resulting cabernet has an affinity for braised meats, grilled fish, hearty pastas, good books, fireplaces and summer evenings on the patio.

2001  Hennessy XO Limited Edition Holiday Pack

Created by Maurice Hennessy in 1870 for his circle of friends, XO was born at a turning point in history and introduced a new style of cognac: bold, rich and complex.

Its intense and deep amber color is a sign of its strength. Its flavors of candied fruit and its subtle and lightly spicy nose create a complete harmony: a mark of its roundness. To taste, a smooth, full sensation gives a simultaneously powerful and soft tonality with a hint of cocoa and a warm fruity presence. The long finish expresses all the complexity of the cognac’s blending and its long aging process. At once deep and powerful, its character seduces connoisseurs, who appreciate its undeniable modernity and constant revelation of layers of flavors, whether tasted neat, on ice or with a splash of still or sparkling water.

Includes a limited edition gold flask.

2002  Three Chardonnay White Wines Highly Recommended

This package includes:

2010 Ridge Montebello Chardonnay, Cupertino
Vibrant nose of citrus blossoms, crushed rocks, oak and waxy, buttery fruit (white currants and white peaches). Crisp acidity gives the wine an attractive, well-delineated style, and it should age easily given its zesty acid profile. This solidly made Chardonnay should drink well for 6-8 years - Robert Parker.

2011 Port de Chevalier, Knight’s Valley, Chardonnay, Napa Valley
This wine experienced only partial malolactic fermentation to accentuate the clean ripe freshness of our Knights Valley fruit. The result is a pure, focused expression of the vineyard with deep, unfolding aromatics. Not yet rated.

2012 Duckhorn Vineyards, Chardonnay, Napa Valley
Duckhorn's inaugural vintage of Napa Valley Chardonnay! A brand new release, this draws from premium vineyards throughout the Napa Valley to create a lush, richly fruited Chardonnay that is aged in oak for an elegantly textured, complex and toasty style. According to winemaker Renee Ary, "what I like about this wine is that it is a classic. It follows in the Duckhorn style in that is elegant, balanced, bold, and has acidity that carries through to the finish. The 2012 vintage showcases layers of white peach, nectarine, and melon followed by warm notes of nougat, crème brulee, and chai" (From the winery).

4049  GRIMM Package

GRIMM Season One Blu-Ray CD and a Framed Poster Signed by the Cast.

"GRIMM" is a drama series inspired by the classic Grimm Brothers' Fairy Tales. After Portland Homicide Detective Nick Burkhardt (David Giuntoli, "Turn the Beat Around") discovers he's descended from an elite line of criminal profilers known as "Grimms," he increasingly finds his responsibilities as a detective at odds with his new responsibilities as a "Grimm."

His attempts to shield his fiancée, Juliette Silverton (Bitsie Tulloch, "The Artist"), and his partner, Hank Griffin (Russell Hornsby, "Lincoln Heights"), from the hazards of his new life have reached a crisis, leaving Juliette in a mysterious coma and Hank on the verge of a mental breakdown.

With help from his confidants, Monroe (Silas Weir Mitchell) and Rosalee (Bree Turner, "The Ugly Truth") - both reformed Grimm creatures, Nick must help those closest to him while still facing off against all manner of ancient evils, including royal lines dating back to the original profilers themselves, the Grimm Brothers. As Nick develops his ability to harness his inner Grimm, he begins to question what he once knew, never more so than when he is reunited with his mother (guest star Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, "Scarface"), also a Grimm, whom he thought dead for the past 20 years. Reggie Lee ("The Dark Knight Rises") and Sasha Roiz ("Caprica") also star as Sgt. Wu and Captain Renard, respectively.

Here's a once-in-a-lifetime chance to visit the set of the CBS hit television series Hawaii Five-0! You and a guest will get a chance to see the cast and crew in action as they film an upcoming episode.

You will also receive a Hawaii Five-0 hat, shirt and script signed by some of the cast – Alex O'Loughlin, Scott Caan and Grace Park.

Hawaii Five-0 is filmed in Honolulu, HI. Travel and hotel accommodations are not included. Valid weekdays only and is subject to the production schedule. An adult must accompany all individuals under the age of 18. CBS cannot guarantee the meeting of any or all cast members. Expires 2014.

HAWAII FIVE-0 is a contemporary take on the classic series about a new elite federalized task force whose mission is to wipe out the crime that washes up on the Islands' sun-drenched beaches. Detective Steve McGarrett, a decorated Naval officer-turned-cop, returns to Oahu to investigate his father's murder and stays after Hawaii's Governor persuades him to head up the new team: his rules, her backing, no red tape and full blanket authority to hunt down the biggest "game" in town. Joining McGarrett is Detective Danny "Danno" Williams, a newly relocated ex-New Jersey cop - a working man in paradise who prefers skyscrapers to the coastline - but who's committed to keeping the Islands safe for his 8-year-old daughter; and Chin Ho Kelly, an ex-Honolulu Police Detective, and former protégé of McGarrett's father, wrongly accused of corruption and relegated to a federal security patrol. Chin's cousin, Kono Kalakaua, is a beautiful and fearless native, fresh out of the academy and eager to establish herself among the department's elite. McGarrett, repairing his relationship with his estranged sister Mary Ann, vows to bring closure to their father's case, while the state's brash new FIVE-0 unit, who may spar and jest among themselves, is determined to eliminate the seedy elements from the 50th state.

6007  Race L.A.
CityRace Admission for Four

A certificate for four people to compete in any CityRace Urban Adventure Hunt.

In CityRace Urban Adventure Hunts, teams of two to four players must utilize all their skills to solve a challenging series of clues leading them on a three-hour hunt through one of Southern California’s many diverse neighborhoods.

CityRace Urban Adventure Hunts will require your best sleuthing skills, plus a dash of brainpower: you’ll crack codes, solve challenging puzzles, uncover little-known facts and more...all while racing against other teams to be first to the finish line with the most correct answers. Every team will receive a packet of clues at the start of the hunt that will range from moderately easy to very difficult. CityRace clues will lead you to various locations around a neighborhood of the city. Once there, you’ll usually need to answer a question about each location, proving that you’ve found it. Points are given for each correct answer. Some hunts also include an opportunity to gain bonus points by collecting a “scavenger hunt” item, taking photos, or other unique twists.

The first team to reach the finish line before the three hour time limit – with the highest number of points – is the winner! You can solve your clues in any order you wish. Most teams probably will not solve all of the clues within the three hour time limit. It’ll be up to you to strategize how best to use your time – and each other – to correctly solve as many clues as possible.

Subject to availability. May not be combined with any other offer. Certificate may only be redeemed for CityRace Urban Adventure Hunts. Not valid for Race/LA, Disneyland, California Adventure, Haunted Halloween or special events.

Donated by Race L.A.
