

East West Players Scholarship Guidelines

East West Players, the nation's premier Asian American theatre organization, is dedicated to fostering the creative endeavors of artists who wish to pursue the performing arts as a career, as well as those seeking personal exploration.

Actors Conservatory scholarships through the Beulah Quo Endowment for Theatre Education

- Two scholarships for a class during the Fall, Winter or Spring session
- One scholarship for the Summer Intensive six-week program
- Varying number of partial scholarships available "as needed."

Recipients for both the Actors Conservatory and David Henry Hwang Institute are expected to fulfill work scholarship hours equivalent to $10 per hour (i.e. $350 = 35 hours). To document work hours, recipients are required to turn in monthly invoices to Marilyn Tokuda detailing the date, time and work completed. Assignments may vary and will consist of tasks including, but not limited to, mailings, event staffing, ushering and office work. East West Players, along with the scholarship recipients, will determine schedule to complete work hours.

East West Players encourages all those interested in pursuing the arts to apply. For more information, contact Arts Education Director Marilyn Tokuda at (213) 625-7000 x15 or mtokuda@eastwestplayers.org.
